Chief Appraiser

REQUEST TO CANCEL EXEMPTIONS FOR PREVIOUS OR CURRENT TAX YEAR AND/OR TRANSFER SCHOOL TAX CEILING TO NEW RESIDENCE

OV65/Disability homeowners may transfer their school tax ceiling to a different home. The school tax ceiling on the new home is calculated to give the homeowner the same percentage of tax paid as the original home's tax ceiling.

To transfer the school tax ceiling, the OV65/Disability homeowner may request a certificate from the chief appraiser in the last appraisal district in which their home received the tax ceiling. The homeowner presents the certificate to the chief appraiser in the district where the new home is located when the owner applies for the OV65/Disability homestead exemptions on the new home.

Describe the property on which you currently (or last) receive(d) the OV65/Disability homestead exemption and for which you are requesting a school tax ceiling transfer certificate.

Street Address & City: _____

Important

If you qualified for your Homestead/OV65/Disability exemption on your old home on January 1 and later in that same tax year you acquired a new home, you cannot claim the OV65/Disability exemption on both homes. You must choose which homestead to claim.

Indicate your choice by checking one of the following options:

- Please remove my OV65 exemption from my previous residence. I am applying for the over 65 on my new home for year(s) _____
- Please remove my Disabled Persons exemption from my previous residence. I am applying for the Disabled Persons on my new home for year(s) _____
